

Newsletter: Information and Publishing Schedule

The Upstate Naturalist, the association's newsletter, is published 6 times a year in months that do not have a general meeting.

General meeting announcements are also your reminder to gather photos, event announcements and stories to send to the editor.

Editor and board member contact information is listed on the masthead.

All submissions that support continuing education, naturalist volunteer service and your own observations and relationship with the natural world are welcome.

Laura Godfrey <lauraegodfrey1@gmail.com>